Oddly-named Variety Show destroys convention and opens glowing magical portal to a future devoid of fossil fuels and social unrest

Melbourne, 02 February 2006

The Melbourne entertainment scene has been left cowering in fear under the nearest doormat by a new LIVE variety show, The Pink Horse of Whimsy (PHoW).

PHoW showcases some of Melbourne's best established and upcoming comedians, musicians and filmmakers, and is hosted by the cheeky and energetic Danny Alder and ticking emotional time-bomb Dan Walmsley.

Showing every Wednesday for the next three weeks (the 8th, 15th and 22nd of February), this week's sophomore edition brought a surreal edge to proceedings, with classic segments like "What Would Georgie Choose" infused with otherworldly special effects, complemented perfectly by the surreal stories of headliner Adam Vincent. Richard McKenzie was a brilliant and enigmatic fill in for Danny as co-host.

Next week's show will feature comedians Matt Kenneally, Adam McKenzie and headliner Janelle Koenig. Tempted will be giving us an acoustic set, and yet again we will screen a great locally-made short film.

The next show is on at 8pm on the 8th of February upstairs at Vibe on Smith (123 Smith Street, Collingwood) and entry is $5.
